Volumes I - XVI
These 16 volumes (others are in the process of being printed) contain documents, speeches, directives and memoranda issued by Enver Hoxha, the First Secretary of the Albanian Communist Party since the foundation of the party during World War II. Many facts are distorted; other events of great importance such as purges and party policies are omitted. Be that as it may, in spite of all distortions and omissions, for one who knows how to read between the lines, the content of these volumes is extremely important for research.
