The Parable of the Rich Fool

- 13 Then one from the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”
- 14 But he said to them, “Man, who made me a judge or an arbiter over you?”
- 15 And He said to them, “Take heed and beware of covetousness, for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses.”
- 16 Then he spoke a parable to them, “The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully.
- 17 And he thought within himself, ‘What shall I do since I have no room to store my crops?’
- 18 So he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods.
- 19 And I will say to my soul, ‘Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your leave ease; eat, drink, and be merry.’
- 20 But God said to him, ‘Fool. This night your soul will be required of you; then whose will those things be which you have provided?’
- 21 So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”
