Location and Directions
At the end of this lesson, the students will be able to provide directions and location. Under this Terminal Learning Objective, the students will be able to:

1. Identify the compass directions
   - Tell cardinal points on the compass
   - Name directions in the TL
   - Provide information on how to get to certain place
   - Use the vocabulary items for compass directions, such as north, south, east, and west
   - Explain degrees, mils, azimuth, and grid coordinates when using a compass

2. Give directions in the field, in town, in a building
   - Request/provide directions in a building
   - Request/provide directions in town
   - Request/provide directions in the field
   - Provide distance in meters using a map

3. Give information regarding location
   - Ask and provide information on how to get to certain location
   - Talk about the difference between polar and magnet north
   - Provide/describe reference points
   - Describe natural and man-made features
Before you can get to where you want to go, you have to know how to ask. Soldiers especially need to know how to identify and understand terminology that describes how to get from one place to another, and be able to tell others how to get to a designated point as well. In this lesson you will learn the cardinal points in Thai, and how to ask for directions as well as provide directions in the field, in town, and in a building. At the end of this lesson, you will be able to recognize locations and give information about location.

Tip of the Day

The Thai military uses the same topographic mapping system as the U.S. military. Conventionally, a coordinate pair from a topographic map in the universal transverse mercator (UTM) projection can be achieved by "READ-RIGHT-UP". This can be done by placing the origin for reading at the lower left corner of a particular grid square surrounding a required target or location on the map. As the value of coordinate pair in the UTM coordinate system always contains equal digits of X (to the right) and Y (upward), hence, the reading always results in an even number of digits. A number of digits used depends upon a required accuracy. For example, a coordinate pair of 4 digits is for an accuracy of 100,000 meters. By placing the zero setting of the protractor on the lower left corner of a required grid square. Read the coordinates to the right first and then up.

พิกัดโพลาร์บอกตำแหน่งของที่หมายโดยใช้ระยะทางจากผู้สังเกตการณ์ไปยังที่หมายและอาซิมุทไปยังที่หมาย

พิกัดกริดอ่านได้จากแผนที่ภูมิปานาธิวิทยา (topographic map) ของประเทศไทยโดยอ่านค่าพิกัดทางราจาซ้ายไปขวาและพิกัดทางตั้งจากลำช้ำบน

ข้าม as a preposition may mean "across or "over," depending on the context.

Example: เราขับรถข้ามแม่น้ำ = We drive across the river.
คุณต้องกระโดดข้ามคู = You have to jump over the ditch.

It may also be used as verb meaning "to cross."

Example: ข้ามสะพาน = to cross a bridge
ข้ามคลอง = to cross a canal

เสาไฟฟ้า literally means "power line pole" which is most commonly used by Thais instead of the word" telephone pole" which is nonexistent in the Thai vocabulary.

Remember: when asking for information, be polite. Saying ขอโทษครับ would be a good way to start a conversation with a stranger. Always thank the other person for the information. When addressing an elderly person, ลุง (uncle) or ป้า (aunt) is generally preferred.

Public Transportation in Thailand

Thai cities have public transportation systems consisting of buses, taxis, and pedicabs. In Bangkok, there are generally two types of buses - the regular buses and air-conditioned buses. The air-conditioned bus is a little more expensive, but it is more convenient and less crowded. Aside from the regular buses which are designated by route numbers instead of destinations, there are also the รถสองแถว (a small bus with two rows of bench seats facing each other) which operate mostly in the side street. When riding a bus in the city, a passenger buys a ticket from the conductor on the bus instead of paying the driver as in the United States.

สามล้อ or pedicab (literally, three wheeler) in Bangkok generally means a motorized pedicab. It is sometimes referred to as ตุ๊กตุ๊ก (the noise made by its motor).

Getting a cab

The most common way to get a cab in Thailand is to flag it down at roadside. Taxis practically cruise around town all day long. Very few places, such as large hotels and movie theaters, have taxi stands. As required by law, all taxicabs have a meter. Taxicabs equipped with air-conditioning usually charge a little more than the ones without air-conditioning. Tipping is never required.
Tip of the Day

The conversion between degrees and grades can be approximated by,

- \((\text{degrees} \times 10) / 9 = \text{grades}\)
- \((\text{grades} \times 9) / 10 = \text{degrees}\)
- 360 degrees = 400 grades

The conversion between degree and mils can be approximated by,

- \((\text{degrees} \times 53.33) / 3 = \text{mils}\)
- \((\text{mils} \times 3) / 53.33 = \text{degrees}\)
- 1 degree ≈ 17.78 mils

Activity 1 (Pair Work)
Students work in pairs and practice this dialogue.

Discussing an Escape Route

A = Special Forces Soldier
B = Thai Contact Person

A: Ask B where the enemy position is.
B: Describe to A the location in the forest between the lake and the mountain.
A: Inquire about the best way from the enemy position to the rendezvous point.
B: Specify direction. Describe the route along the river and then past two points of reference.
A: Ask if there is a village in the area.
B: Answer negatively but mention the farm. Caution A to avoid the farm by going along the fence and detouring through the meadow.
A: Ask if there is anything else (you should know).
B: Warn A not to climb up the high voltage lines.
A: Assure B that you know that, but thank him anyway.

Activity 2
Practice this dialogue with your partner

Somewhere in Town

A: Approach the stranger and tell him that you cannot find the highway.
B: Suggest that he continue straight ahead.
A: Point out that there is a pedestrian zone ahead and that you cannot drive there.
B: Acknowledge that fact and suggest he makes a right turn.
A: Point out that there is a construction site and that the road is closed.
B: Suggest that he turns left.
A: Point out that it is a one-way street and that you cannot make a left turn.
B: Express regrets. Admit that you cannot help him, that you are from out of town yourself, and terminate the conversation.

Activity 3
You have prepared a description of the way from Don Muang airport to your house as you would give it to Thai acquaintances who arrived at the airport, got a rental car, and are now going to pay you a visit. You can use the map given below to illustrate the route and points of reference.

Activity 4 (Group Work)
Work in your groups to play treasure hunt. Your instructor will hide pieces of paper with the word "ขอแสดงความยินดีด้วย" (congratulations). The leader of each group will know where the ‘treasure’ is hidden, but group members may only ask yes or no questions about its whereabouts. The winning team is the one who will find the treasure.
Activity 5 (Pair Work)
You asked the receptionist in the hotel to write directions to certain places. You received this paper written in English. You want to write it in Thai to show it to people on the street in case you lose your way. Rewrite the following text in Thai. Work with your partner to check for accuracy.

1. To go to the zoo, you will need to make a right turn as soon as you exit the hotel from the main entrance, and keep going until you see a big black building on your right hand side then you turn left. At the end of this street is the back entrance of the zoo.

2. To go the nearest travel agency, you need to exit the hotel from the back entrance. Keep going straight and pass three traffic lights then turn right you will find a white rectangular building. This is the nearest travel agency.

Activity 6 (Pair Work)
Look at the map of Bangkok, and work with your partner asking and answering questions about the best way to get to some of the places on the map. Then write two sets of directions to share with the class.
Activity 7 (Group Work)
Listen to your instructor who is to guide a soldier through a field. Then draw a map of the field that he is trying to describe.

Activity 8 (Group Work)
The class will be divided into two groups. One of the students will go out while the class prepares the field of booby traps of strategically placed classroom materials (i.e. backpack mines, textbook tar pits, etc.) Your instructor will blindfold the student coming in. His partner will guide him through the field by giving him directions in Thai only. The winning team is the one who arrives at the end of the field by following appropriate directions.

Activity 9 (Group Work)
Each member of the group will choose a point on the map below. Brief your group about the route to that point. Give details and pay attention by using specific verbs describing climbing on or over, going around, past, or along and avoiding or crossing landmarks. One of your group mates will then ‘block’ one of the legs of your route as a result of a bridge being washed out or dangerous artillery ahead. Prepare this alternate route briefing in writing.
Activity 10 (Pair Work)
Each of you assumes a role in the conversation below. Read the following dialogue that happened between a foreigner and a Thai in Bangkok. The foreigner has lost his way and the Thai is trying to give directions to his destination using reference points. Read it and answer the following questions.

Tourist: ขอโทษนะครับ ผมหลงทาง ผมอยากจะไปวัดพระแก้วไปยังไงครับ
Thai: คุณมาผิดทางครับ คุณต้องเดินกลับไปทางนี้ พอไปถึงที่สี่แยกข้างหน้าเลี้ยวขวา เดินตรงไปเรียบร้อย ผ่านไฟแดงที่สามแล้วเลี้ยวซ้ายนะครับ แล้วเดินไปอีกนิดเดียวคุณก็จะเห็นกำแพงวัดแล้วละครับ
Tourist: ไกลไหมครับ ถึงชั่วโมงไหมครับ
Thai: ไม่ไกลหรอกครับ ผมคิดว่าไม่เกินครึ่งชั่วโมงก็ถึง
Tourist: ขอบคุณมากครับ
Thai: ไม่เป็นไรครับ

1. Where did the tourist want to go?
2. Was he on the right route?
3. Describe the route that the Thai told him to go.
4. How long did it take him to get to his destination?

Activity 11
Using the map section below as a reference, take turns asking and answering questions about the distances between places.

(Scale: 1:50,000  e.g. 1 cm. = 0.5 km.)

Example: บ้านสารภีอยู่ห่างจากบ้านหัวทะเลกี่กิโลเมตร ประมาณ 5 กิโลเมตร

89
Activity 12 (Pair Work)
This is the map of สาธร Apartment complex.  สุนทร  lives in building 5. His friends live in each of the other buildings: สมพงษ์ (building 1), วิรัช (building 2), สมศักดิ์ (building 3), ศิทธิ์ (building 4), คมสันต์ (building 6), พรชัย (building 7), and สมทรัตน์ (building 8). Tell where สุนทร’s friends live according to the cardinal points, using สุนทร as a reference point.

Activity 13
In this activity you will be asked to perform six tasks. Your partner will play six different people who will help you with what you need. Your instructor will supervise this activity.

1. Go to the hotel and book a room for three nights. Ask for the room with the city view. Ask for the price and if you can pay by credit card. Explain how you reached the hotel referring to your starting point. (Your starting point will change from task to task)
2. Ask the policeman how to reach the bank.
3. Go to the bank and exchange $100 for Thai currency.
4. Ask someone for the nearest post office. Put the mark on the map.
5. Go to the post office and send two letters by regular mail to Washington. Ask for the postage price.
6. Find out where the bus station is located. Repeat aloud directions to the bus station.
Activity 14
Imagine that your car got stuck somewhere. Phone your partner (pretend you have a cellular phone) and describe him/her your whereabouts. He/she should draw a line over the map according to your instructions in order to find you. Reverse the roles.
Activity 15 (Pair Work)
Ask and answer each other how one can get from the building where you are having the class to a certain city or town in that area.
Activity 1
Listen as the instructor reads a conversation between Somsak and Surin and choose the best answer.

1. สุรินทร์ is now in:
   a. Bangkok
   b. Pang-nga
   c. Southern part of Bangkok

2. Pang-nga is located:
   a. in Bangkok
   b. in the southern part of Thailand
   c. in the north of Bangkok

3. สุรินทร์ traveled:
   a. by train
   b. by bus
   c. by car

Activity 2

Prakob got lost somewhere on the road. He asks for directions. After listening to the passage, answer the questions.

1. Where does Prakob want to go?
2. How many intersections does he need to pass?
3. Once he passes those intersections, what is he supposed to do?
4. How much time does he need to reach his destination?

Activity 6
Your classmate wants to visit you, but he doesn’t know the directions to your home address. Draw a map and write directions step by step. Your starting point should be your classmate’s home address. The instructor will check your work.

Activity 7
Look at the map below. Each of your classmates will select a certain point on the map. Walk around the classroom and talk to at least three of your classmates. Ask them where they are located. The instructor will mark the starting point. Together determine how to get from the point where they are to their starting point. Describe one direction in front of the class.
Activity 8
Listen to Jintana (your instructor) describing the place where she lives and telling directions from her house to the place where she works. Draw a map according to what you hear. Compare your work with a partner.

Activity 9
Write down in Thai the following directions:

1. How to get from your post to New York City.
2. How to get from your post to the nearest gas station.

Read the directions the next day in class.

Activity 10 (Group Work)
You are currently living in Bangkok and are now on the phone giving instructions to an Thai counterpart, who will soon drive into town to meet you and others at a rendezvous point. Select a meeting point on the map below and tell your partner how to reach it. The partner will take notes in Thai and report back for confirmation. Play both roles with different meeting points.
Activity 11 (Group Work)
Listen while your instructor reads the description of a building. Take notes then draw a map of the building.

Activity 12 (Pair Work)
This week is fire safety week, and you were asked to write a detailed description of the building in Activity 11. Listen once more as your instructor re-reads the description. Make sure you write down all the exits and the stairwell. Write a report providing as many alternate exit routes as possible. Practice guiding your partner out of the building.

Activity 13 (Group Work)
Imagine that you are a tour guide for a travel agency. The instructor will provide you with a map. Create a list of major attractions, and why a tour group should visit them. Write out a schedule of a one-week trip. Be prepared to present your week-tour to the class.

Activity 14 (Pair Work)
Your instructor will give him a map that shows the location of the PX, the hospital, the barracks, the laundromat, the commissary, and several other sites on Post. You will sit back to back. Your partner will give you directions about where each of these places is located, and how they are placed in relation to one another. Practice asking your partner questions about directions in the field and with your back still turned, sketch out a rough map of how the Post looks as your partner describes it. After you finish, compare your map to the original one that your partner has. Your instructor will check your progress and see which teams found the locations.
Activity 15 (Group Work)
The class will be divided into two groups. Your instructor will give you a map of a field and each group will plan an attack on this field. The team with the best strategy that takes the field wins the activity. Follow the example below:
